Honorable John C. Lifland - - Judge Designate
United States District Court Judge
Martin Luther King Jr. Federal Building and Courthouse
50 Walnut Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102

RE: Booker, Joseph Mark
Dkt. No. 00-00069-001
Petition for a Summons - Violation of Supervised Release

Dear Judge Designate:

On April 16, 2001, the Honorable John C. Lifland sentenced the offender to 97 months imprisonment followed by three years of supervised release after pleading guilty to conspiracy to defraud the United States and wire fraud. The following special conditions were also ordered: mental health treatment, financial disclosure, no new debt, employment restrictions, DNA testing, $316,880 restitution, $15,000 fine, and $100 special assessment. On June 27, 2008, Booker began his term of supervised release.

Since the commencement of supervision, the offender has failed to make any payments towards his fine or restitution despite being gainfully employed for eighteen months and collecting unemployment for the past year.

Based on the aforementioned information, we recommend that a violation of supervised release proceedings be initiated. As such, we are petitioning the Court for a warrant. We have attached a Probation Form 12C, Request for Issuance of a Summons, for Your Honor's review and signature. If your Honor requests an alternative course of action, please advise. We will make ourselves available should the Court wish to discuss this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

WILFREDO TORRES, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer

PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1                    The offender has violated the mandatory supervision condition which states 'As a condition of supervision, you are instructed to pay restitution in the amount of $316,880 to the U.S. Treasury for distribution to the actual payees; it shall be paid in the following manner: monthly installments of at least $200.'

During the course of supervision, the offender has failed to make any payments towards his restitution despite having previous employment as a sales associate with Home Depot for nearly eighteen months and currently collecting unemployment since April of 2010.

2                    The offender has violated the mandatory supervision condition which states 'As a condition of supervision, you are instructed to pay a fine in the amount of $15,000; it shall be paid in the following manner: no less than equal monthly installments.'

As previously indicated, the offender has failed to make any payments towards his fines despite having the means to pay.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
